Petition for new Second Class Motor Vehicles Sales License for Alex Auto & Repair at 505 Main Street: Representing the applicant was Alex Urga, 505 Main St. Woburn, MA. Councilor Demers said the locus for the second class motor vehicle license application is also the site of Xpress Fuel station and an auto repair shop. He said this was a situation where the previous license holder moved to another location. He said there was a stipulation that the applicant could apply for a second class license if one became available. He said the applicant has cleaned up the site. He said there have been problems in the past. Chair Ferullo asked Mr. Urga how many cars for sale he is looking to park on the lot. Mr. Urga said he would like to start with at least five cars for sale. He said the lot can accommodate 40 cars. He said he would like to be able to sell as many cars as the council will allow. Councilor Demers said he would agree to allow the applicant to start with 10 cars for sale and then see how it goes. Motion made by Councilor

Demers and seconded by Councilor Toro to grant the second class motor vehicle sales license with a limit of 10 vehicles for sale; approved, 4-0-1.
